Sandra Castro, MD

Family Medicine

Sandra Castro completed her Family Medicine residency in Chicago and is an Integrative Medicine Fellow at the University of Arizona's Andrew Weil Center. She is board-certified in Integrative and Family Medicine and trained at the Institute of Functional Medicine.

With a holistic approach to patient care, Dr. Castro considers the mind, body, and spirit to thoroughly understand each patient's history. This enables her to develop personalized therapy plans that promote healing. She is committed to collaborating with her patients on their healing journeys, empowering them to manage their health actively. In her free time, she enjoys cooking, dancing, and spending time outdoors.
